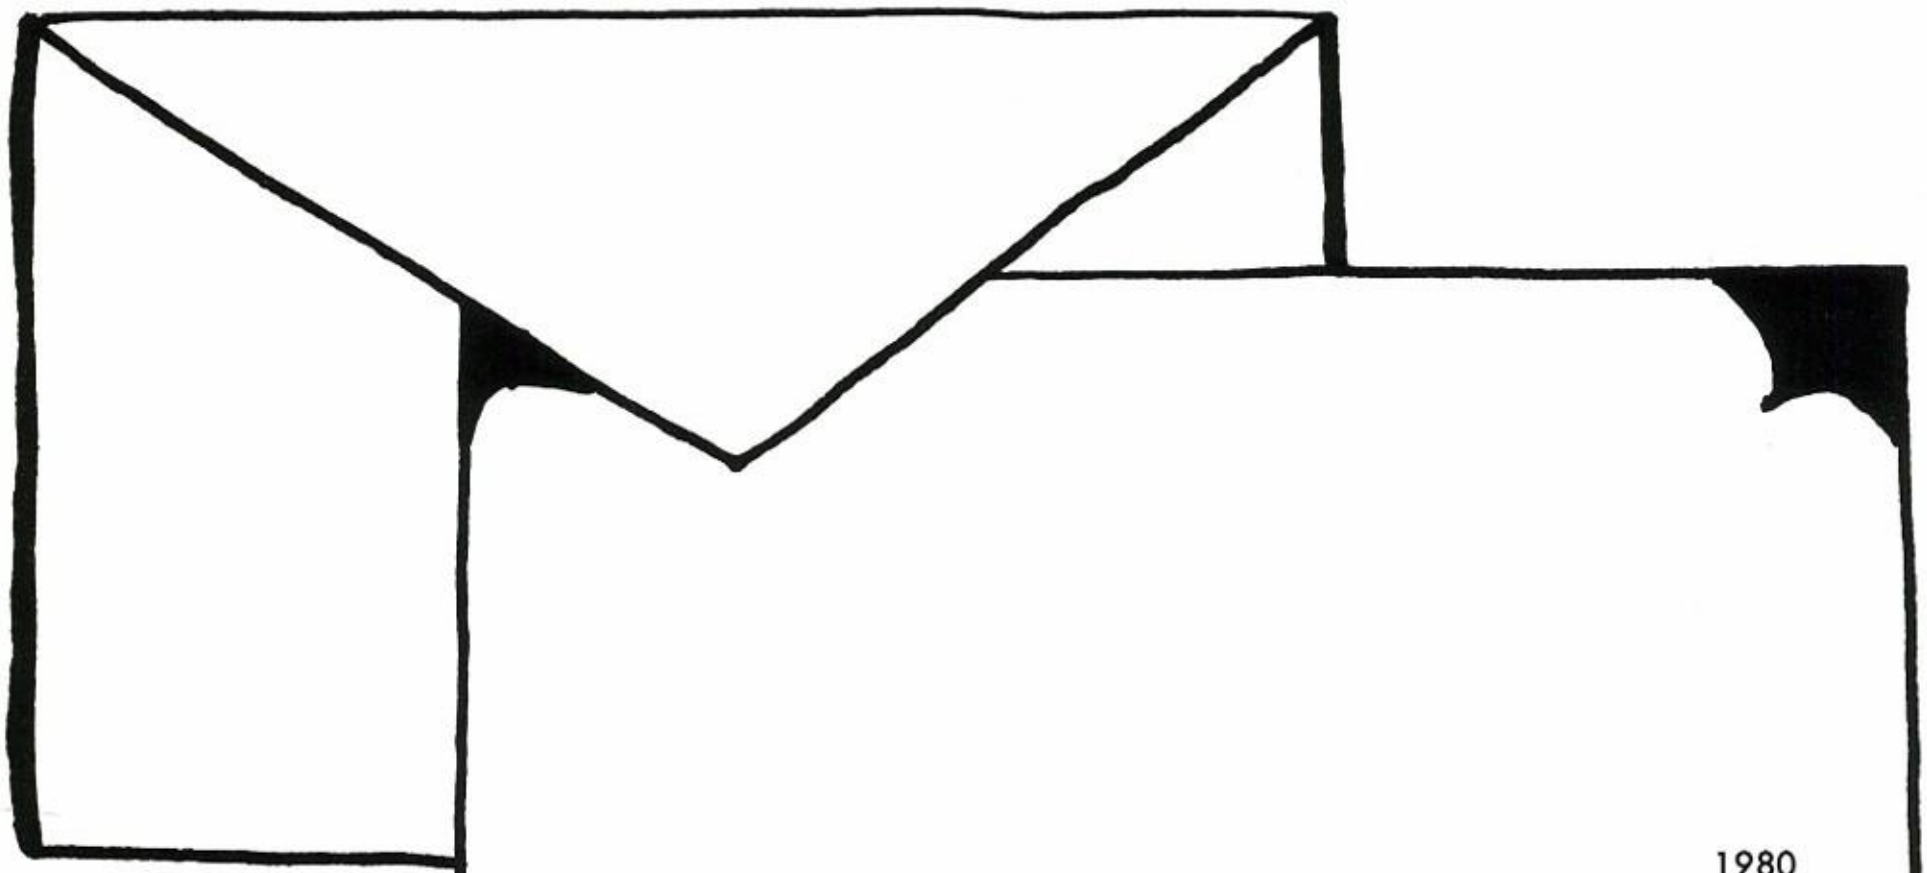
HUDSON SCHOOL

Lufkin, Texas

Volume 32



1980

Dear Student Body,

We have chosen the postal theme to represent "Keeping in Touch." The activities which make high school an interesting place of study are memories which we all want to keep. We have tried to capture the memories of HUDSON at its best. We hope that you will cherish these memories as we will. As we grow older often our memories fade but never will the facts contained in this book. These memories are preserved for you by the Hornet 80 Staff.

Memories forever,

Hornet Staff

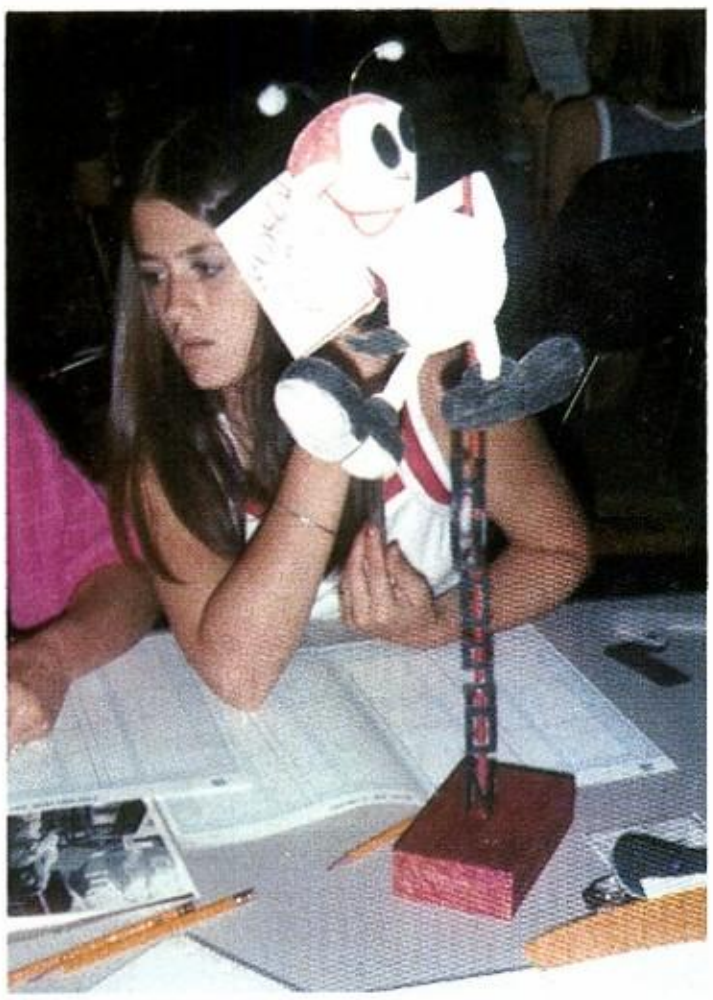
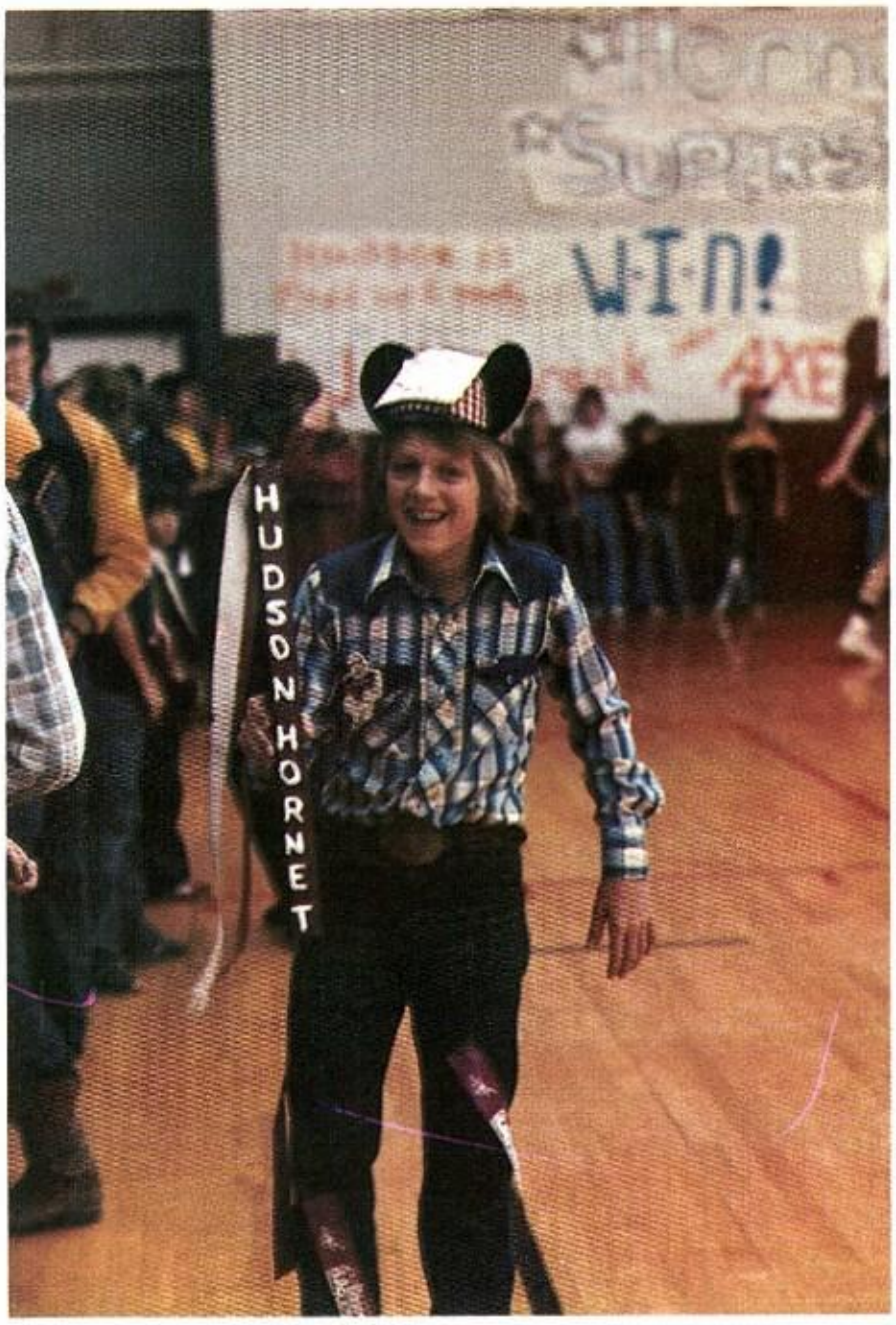
KEEPING IN TOUCH

As we grow and develop amid these halls in both mind and body, there is a need to stay tuned to ourselves and those about us.

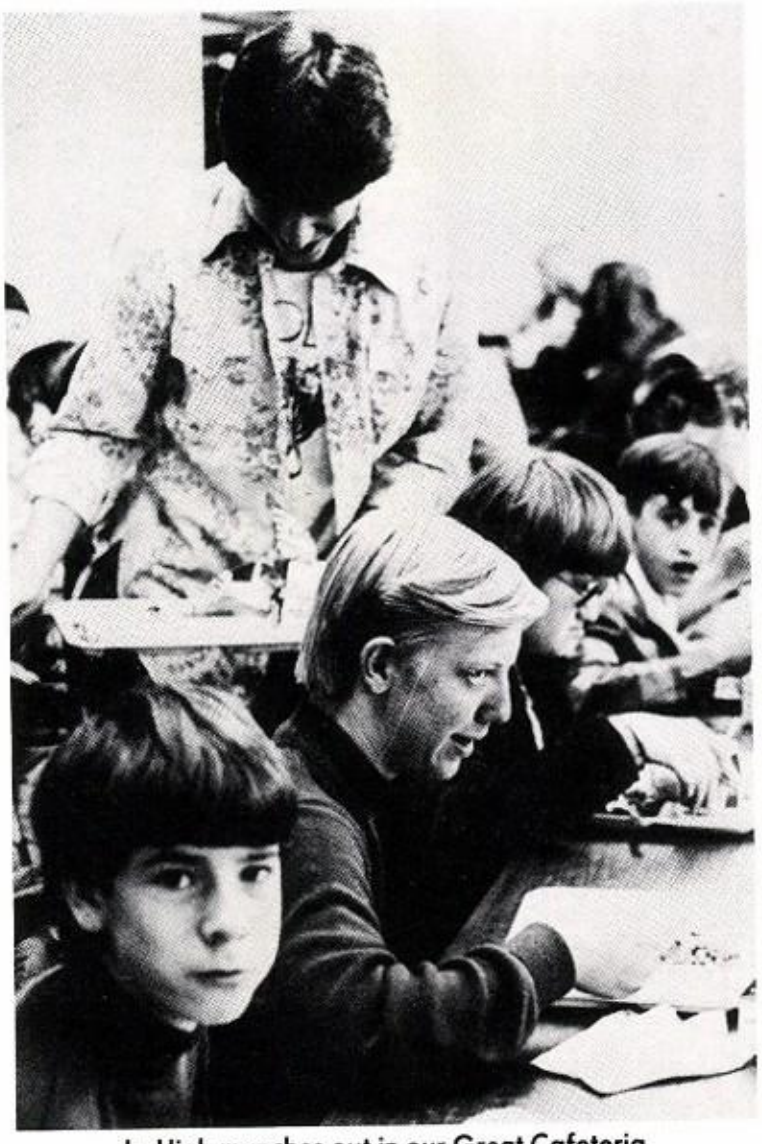


I'm gonna help make this yearbook a great success.



Now that I'm going to high school it's a lot of fun.

Terry, David, and Bradley take a party break at Christmas.



Jr. High munches out in our Great Cafeteria.

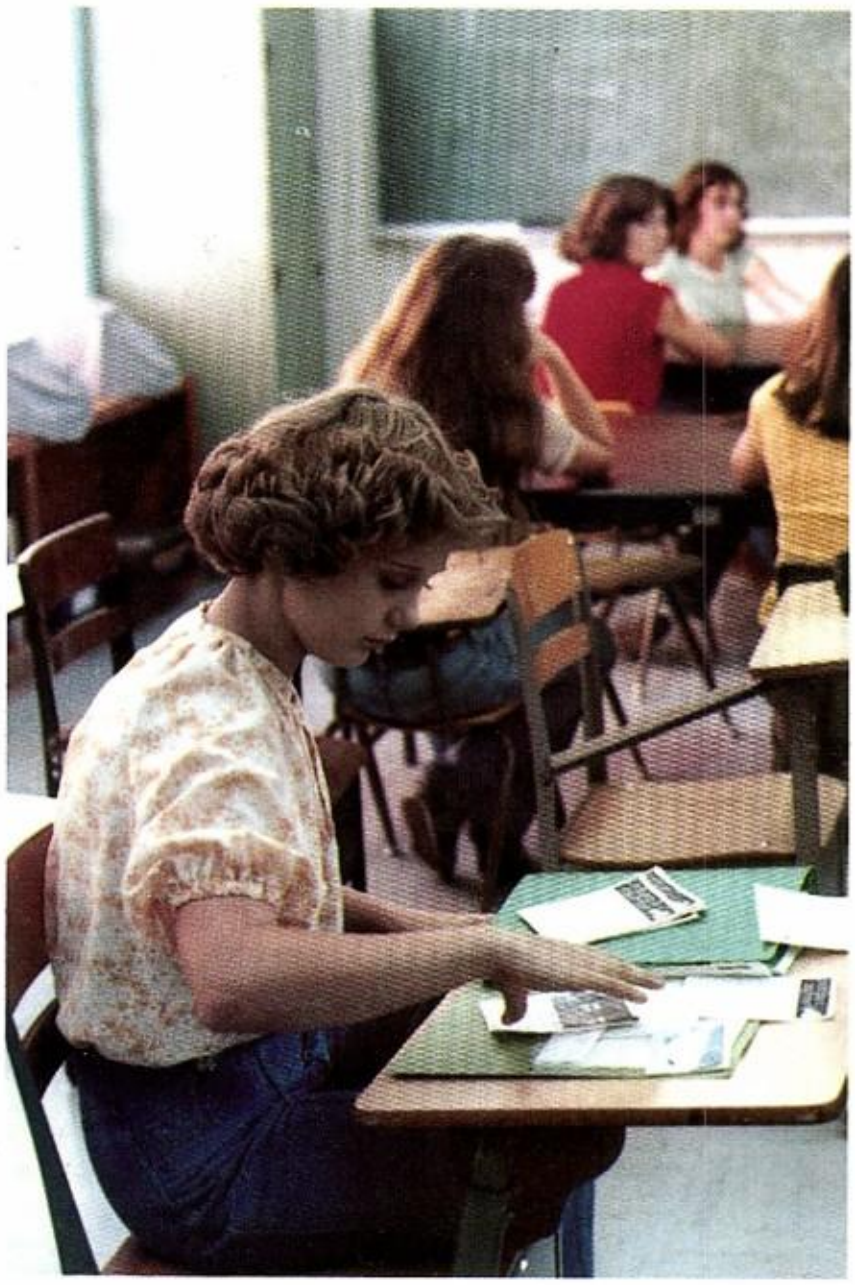
Though one old tradition of Faculty Victory was upheld, Brenda Stephens and Donna Culp begin a new one.

Kathy Blackburn says, "No one can eat just one."

Let's get this thing rolling.

Vicki M. explores career possibilities.

Mr. Music lends a helping ear . . .



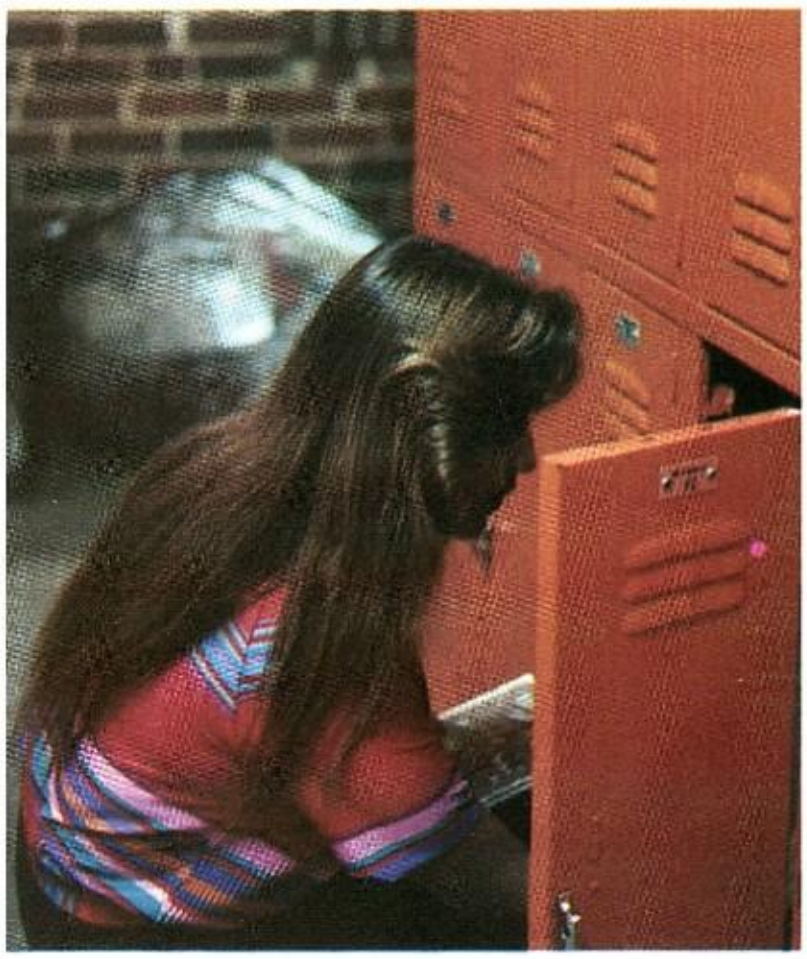
Sheri Bishop learns the importance of keeping things in order.

Tom Petit relaxes at lunch.

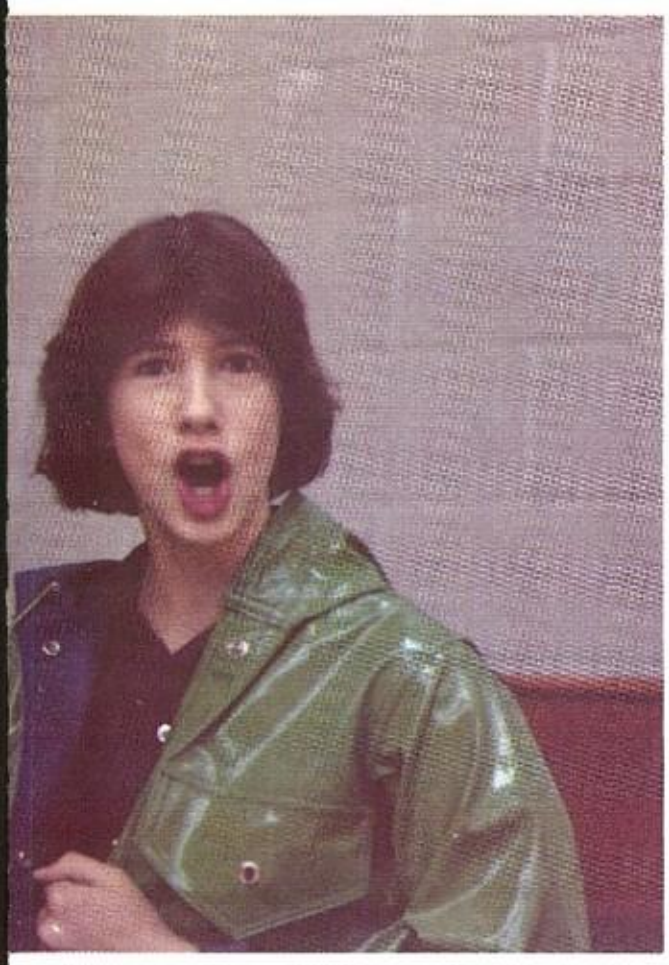
Tony Hunt finishes her meal with chocolate milk.

Camille Turner learns to master latch hooking.

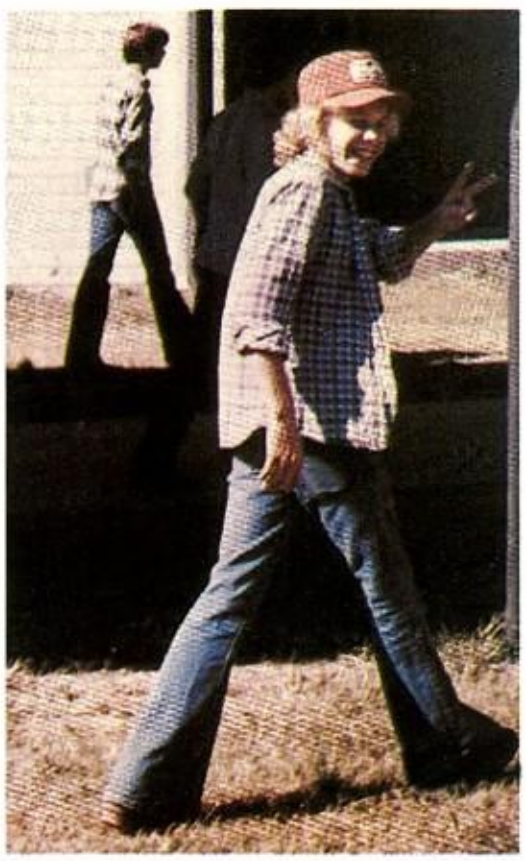
Mrs. Futch tries to instill a little culture in Billie Stephens.



Rosa Topia considers her locker a place of escape.



Angie Jones lets out a burst of craziness.



James Hight brings peace to the world.

IN TOUCH WITH OURSELVES

There are times in life when we enjoy being alone. Often it is then that reasonable logic seems to prevail.

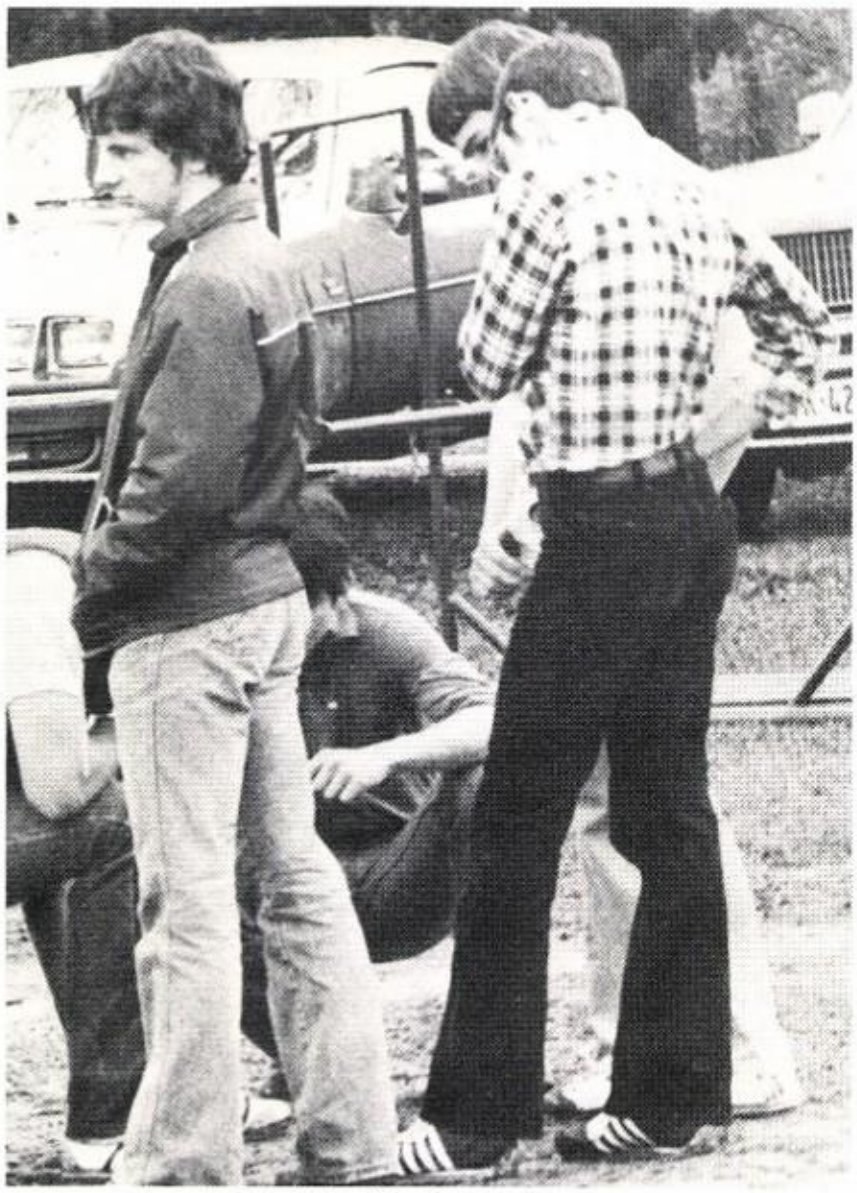
Even the lighthearted, carefree time we spend has an influence on who and what we are, and maybe how we will react to pressure someday.

Kathy Blackburn polishes her hardware.

I wanna go home.

Clifford Peavy gets ready for his trip to Huntsville.

Kim Clark ponders what to do.



Brian Ward checks out the view.

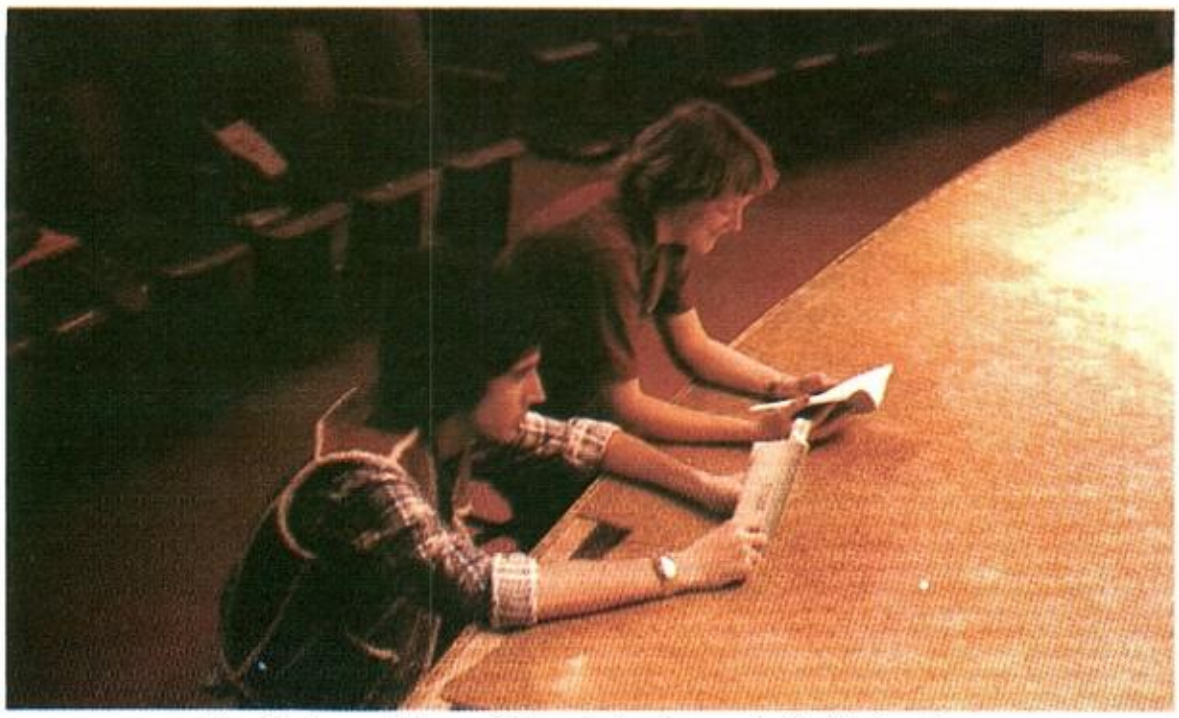
I'm not chasing you around all day.

Scarlett sneaks into her mother's closet.

Mona Taylor gets ready for combat.

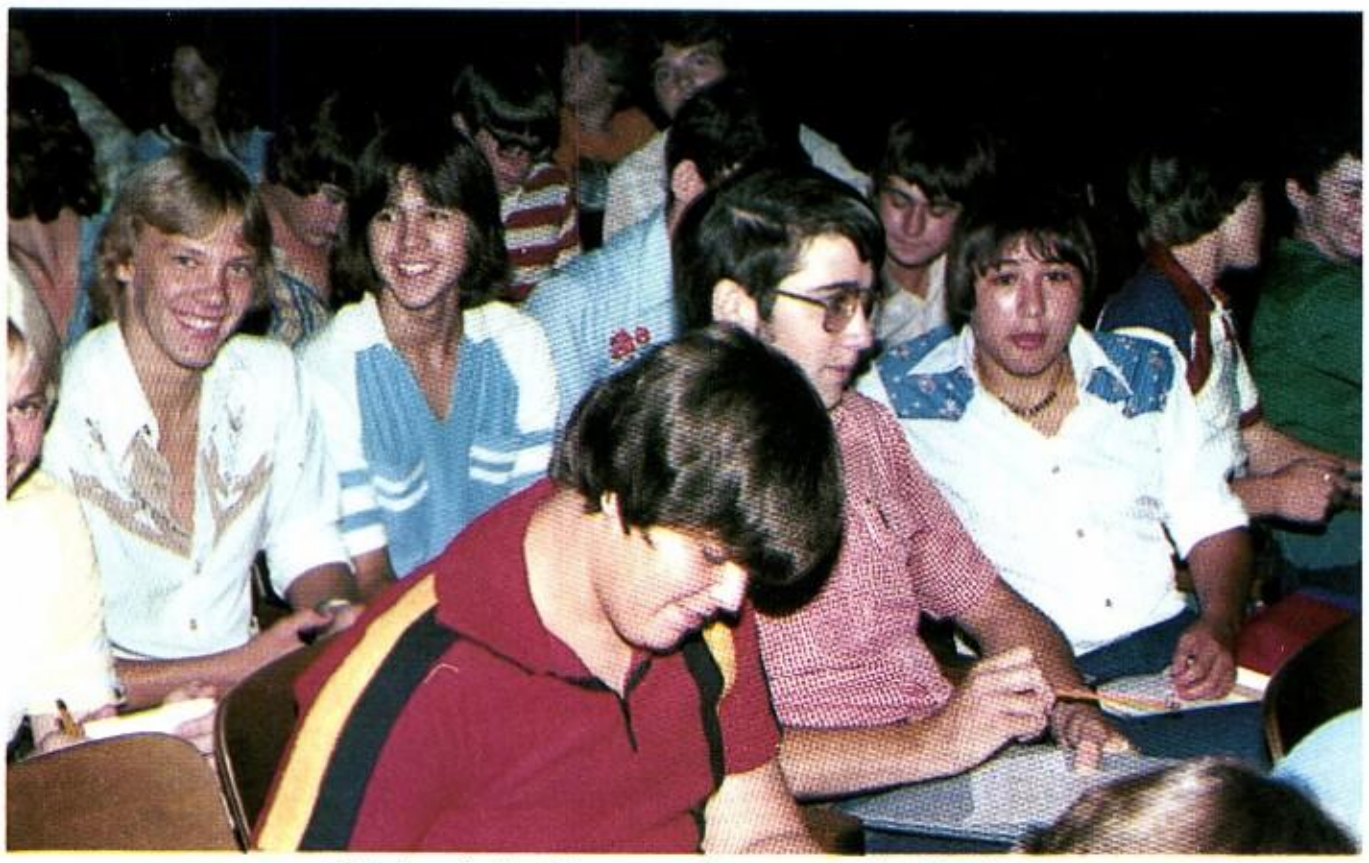
Recess is always a blast when you have someone to share it with.

Brig Luce and Michelle Culp reflect on the excitement of Homecoming night.



Mrs. Fenley and James Stokes study changes in the Senior play.

Friends are always keeping in touch.



First day of school is spent getting acquainted with others.

These girls really enjoyed themselves this summer at camp.

Kathy McDuffie lends an ear to a friend.

IN TOUCH WITH OTHERS

The most meaningful experiences in life come when we react with those about us. We all have a need to share our moments of joy and disappointment. These experiences bring us not only closer to our friends — but also ourselves.

Larry Murphy and John Long give us their CLOSE-UP smile.

We can only be so close.

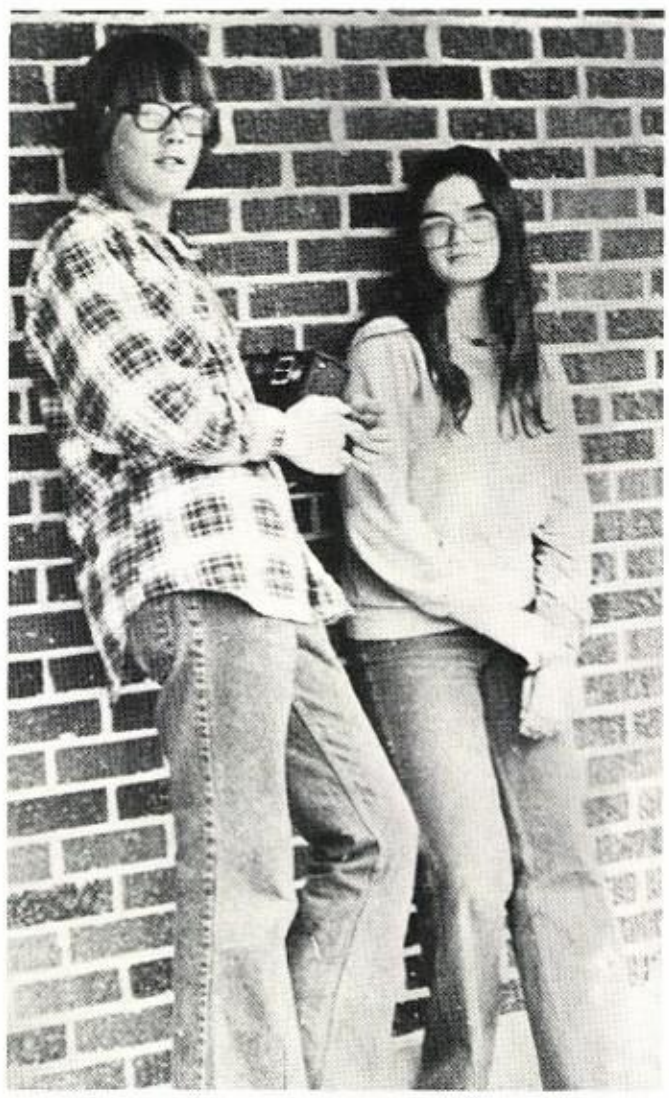
She's with me.

Matt and Danny say good friends are for keeps.



Music brings us closer together.

Marcus English in training for the big fight.

Sometimes it helps to study together.

Hornets fought hard to beat the Jacks!

IN TOUCH WITH THINGS ABOUT US

We all have a common bond in our human longing to be a part of something. A feeling of happiness and achievement is obtained whether participating or simply being a spectator.

Many Seniors worked together to spur the Hornets on to a Victory.

UIL Sponsors

Sponsors for UIL are a vital part of the preparation for the contest. If it were not for the teachers who sponsor the events, the contestants could not go prepared for the meet. Elementary teachers shared the responsibility of preparing the kids for the contest. Each teacher had a job to do in preparing for the meet, which was held at our own junior high and elementary campuses. Junior High teachers, Mrs. Melba Story and Mrs. Fran Hightower helped in preparing for all the junior high events. In high school Mrs. Kathy Ramsey, Mrs. Pat Futch, Mrs. Janet Rawcliffe, Mrs. Elaine Russell, and Mrs. M. J. Brown prepared for the many events in the UIL high school meet. From the student body, all participants in UIL appreciate your help and time spent with us.

Homecoming 1980

At right is the 1980 newly crowned Homecoming Queen and her escort, Cecily Hance and Dusty Stringer, the Senior Representatives.

The night ended well with the Varsity Boys winning 58 to 39 against the Rusk Eagles while the Girls Varsity took their opponents 42 to 29.

The Hudson Hornet '79-'80 Cheerleaders sponsored a Homecoming Dance immediately following the basketball games and coronation. Eddie Thompson, a junior, was the disc jockey for the affair. He provided a combination of Country and Disco to satisfy the tastes of all. At midnight, with Donna Sommers' "Last Dance" playing in the dimly lit Hudson cafeteria, the close of another successful Homecoming celebration was announced.

A New Decade Arrives

Banquet 1980 ★ Love Story

Mr. and Mrs. Si Morrison provide entertainment for the 1980 Junior-Senior banquet.

Tina Martin and Richard Steptoe are anxiously awaiting dinner.

Angie Jones 'chuckles' over the will and prophecies which were printed for each guest.

Kathy Blackburn, junior class president, is the mistress of ceremonies for the evening.

Lisa and Terry, like many others, enjoy their first Junior-Senior banquet and prom.

Mitchell you will just have to wait for your dinner.

No banquet would be complete without a little deviation from formalities.

Karen and James enjoy their last banquet together.

One of the best parts of the banquet is seeing everyone in something besides jeans and "T" shirts.

There's always a line when good food is served.

But the best part is, of course, the food.

Hudson's the team that's really on the beam.
We'll stick together to try to win this game.
We'll fight for pride, for honor and for fame.
We'll win or lose we'll always be the same!

Fight Song

We are the Hornet's, Fighting Hudson Hornets.
No. 1 we're gonna be tonight.
When you see us coming, we'll be wearing
Colors of maroon and white.
And when the sun comes up there'll be a victory.
HHS will always be on top.
So get up and shout, that's what it's all about,
Hornets gonna win tonight!

As we come to the end we are forced to face the fact, that what we once had, will never be the same. The precious memories that we have shared through our High School years will never be forgotten. Nor, could they ever be relived. Though we say we will always keep in touch, we know when we walk down that aisle that we will all go our separate ways. As we reach the end of that twelve year struggle, we will be faced with a far greater challenge. A challenge which will bring to some happiness; and to others sorrow.

And so the graduating class of Nineteen Hundred and Eighty would like to leave on this, a note of happiness for new beginnings and of sadness for cherished endings. Most of all, we would like to leave with the knowledge, that we will someday reunite. Good Luck in the future — for we are the Future.

"The Class of '80 Leaves in Style"

As the Sr. Class leaves HHS, it leaves behind old traditions having been broken and new traditions made.

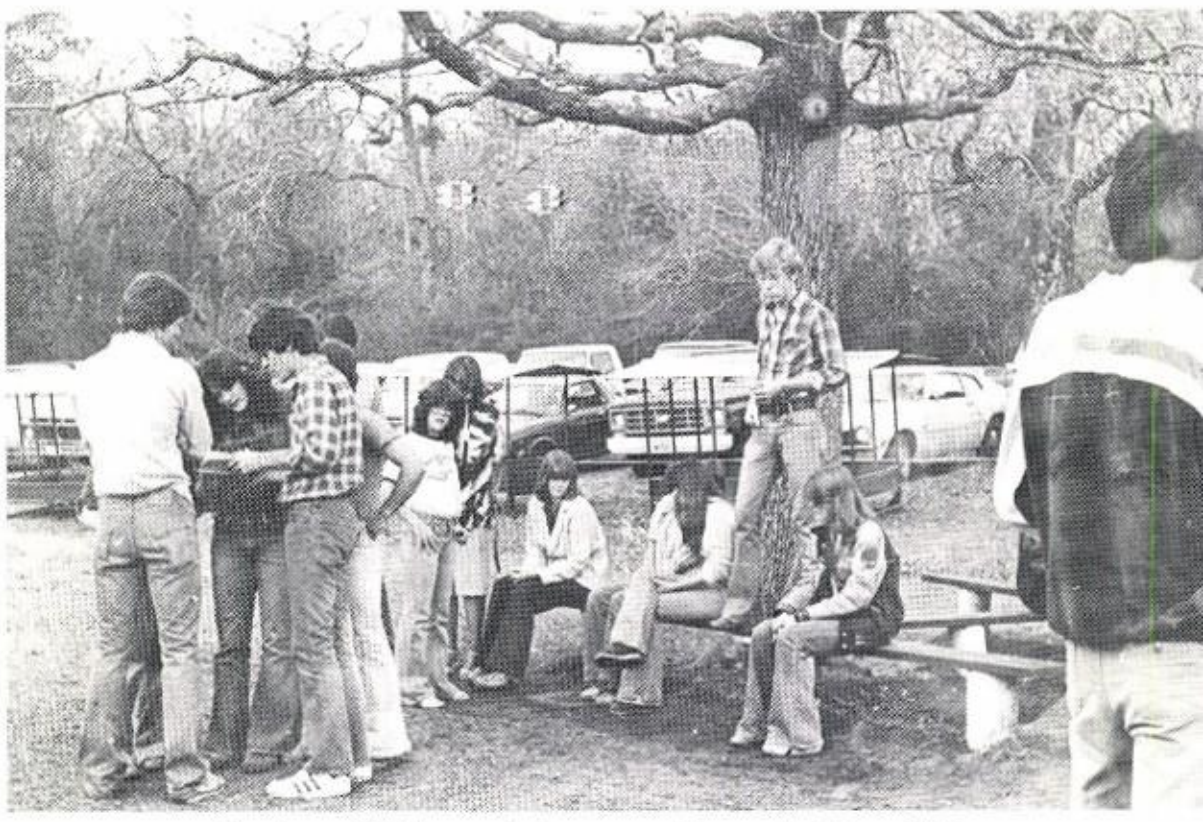
Though each new class at HHS will continue to write its own history, the Seniors of '80 have made a great impact on HHS.

Gary Temple has seen the last of his sleeping in class days.

Could Monica Harrison and Leora Fondren be exchanging cheat notes?

HORNETS warn jacks of a BRAND NEW TRADITION.

Seniors unite with their Hornet Spirit!



The class of '80 leaves their status position to the Class of '81.

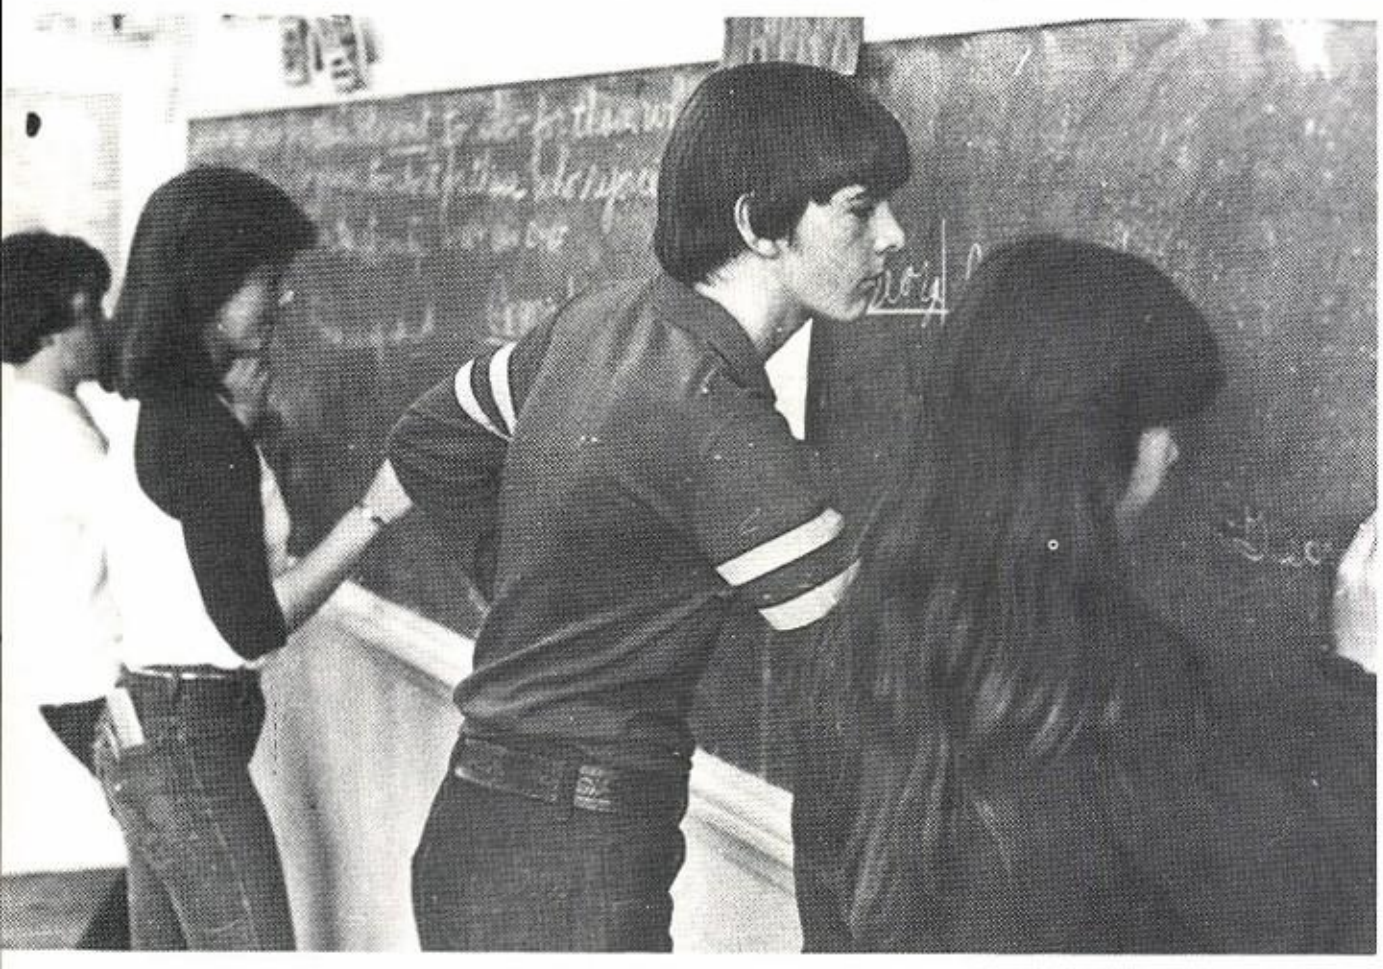
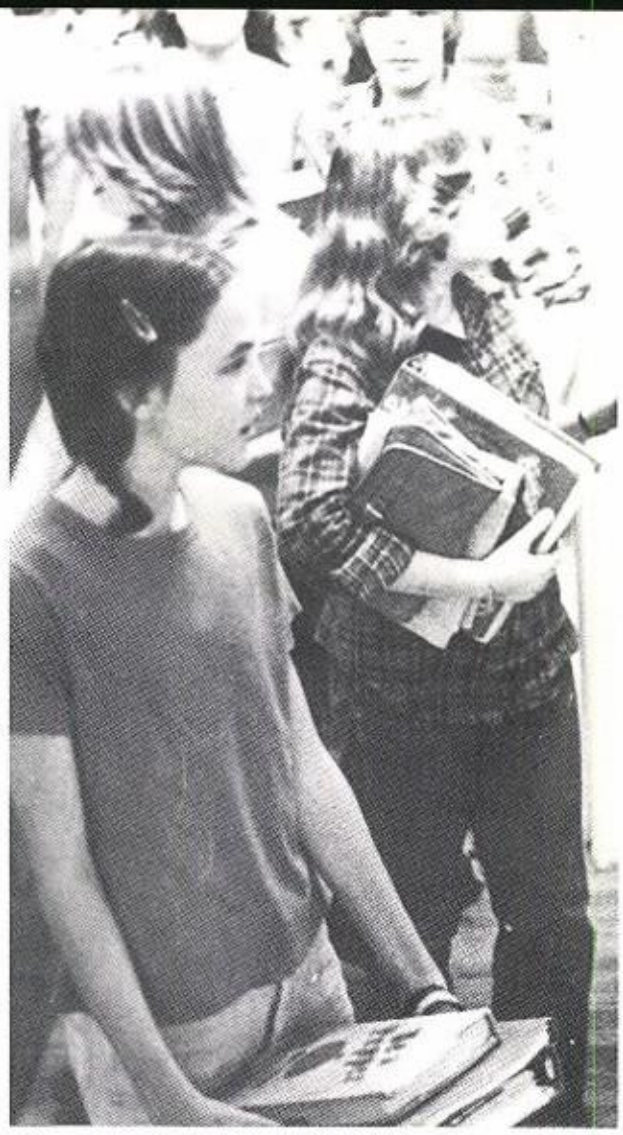
Sometimes it is hard to sit in class and keep your mind on your work — so just make faces at the camera!



To break up the everyday routine of homework many teachers have "relays" as a challenge and a break.

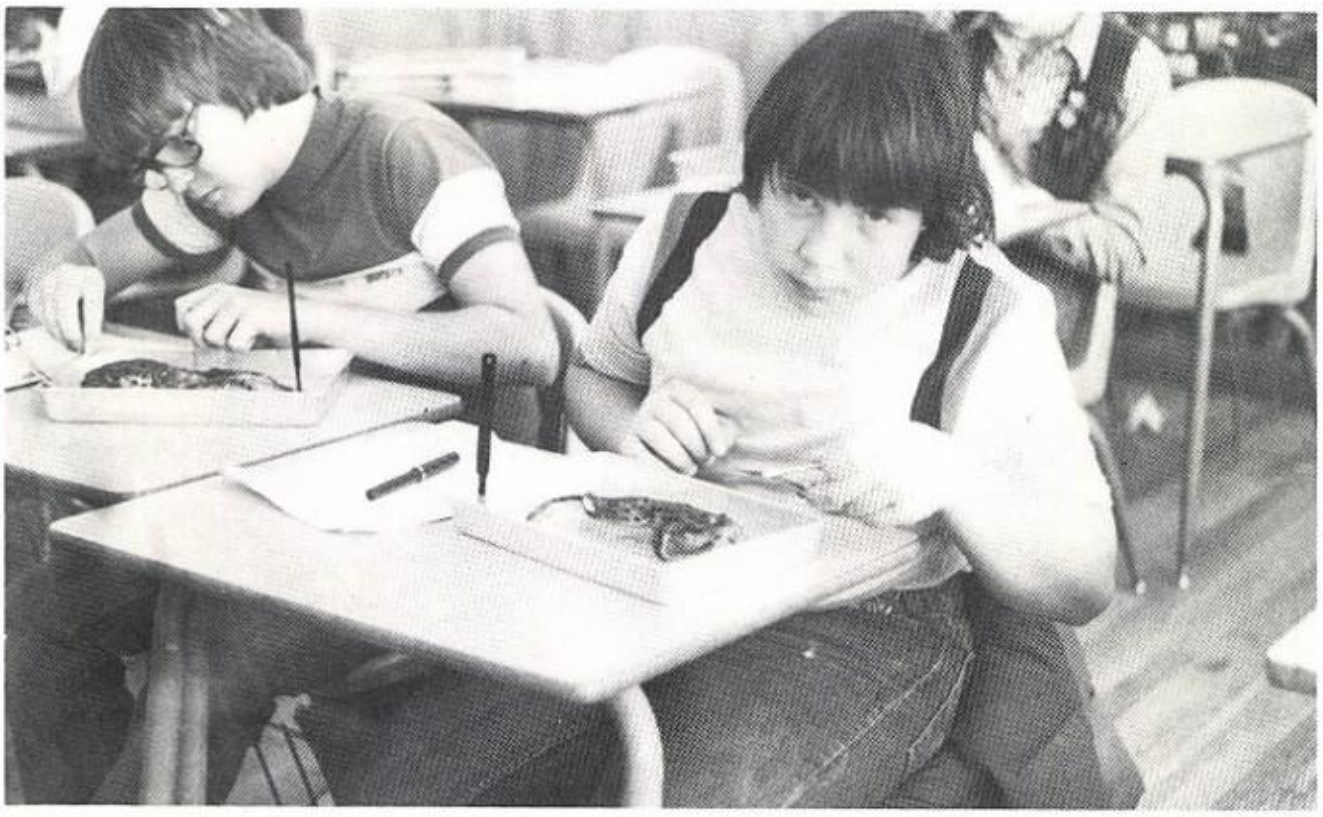
Many kids, such as Joe Don Clark, find it difficult to take the burdens of a Junior High student so they just go crazy!!

Classes — p. 120



In the hall between classes can be hectic!!

David Myers finds it quite a challenge to concentrate on his studies. Maybe it just has not been his day?



Science is quite enjoyable when you have a "dead" frog looking you in the eye.

JUNIOR HIGH is . . .
a time to mature,
grow, and learn how to accept life as it is.
"Life is not always a bed of roses."

With high school
as your aim, set your goals high and strive to achieve them.

What can you do when your back is up against the wall? Many days are not what you expect from school. Right Kathy?

It is always a break when you come to lunch, but first you have to fight the lines.

The halls between classes are always a madhouse but it is togetherness. Right Melinda?

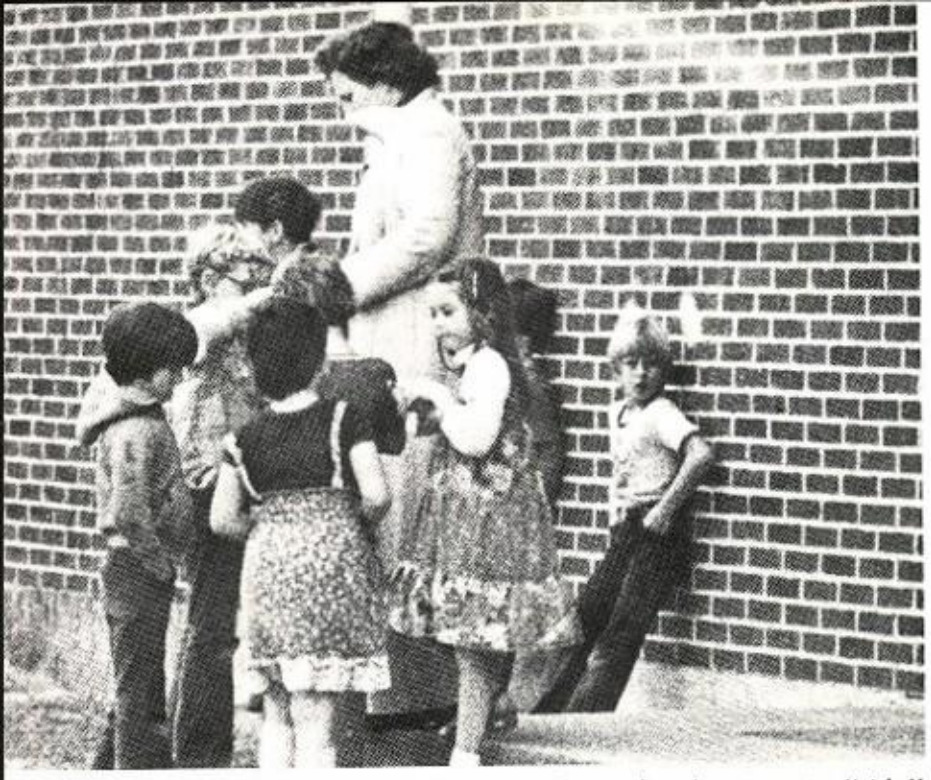
He likes her better!

There's more to kindergarten than the "three R's."

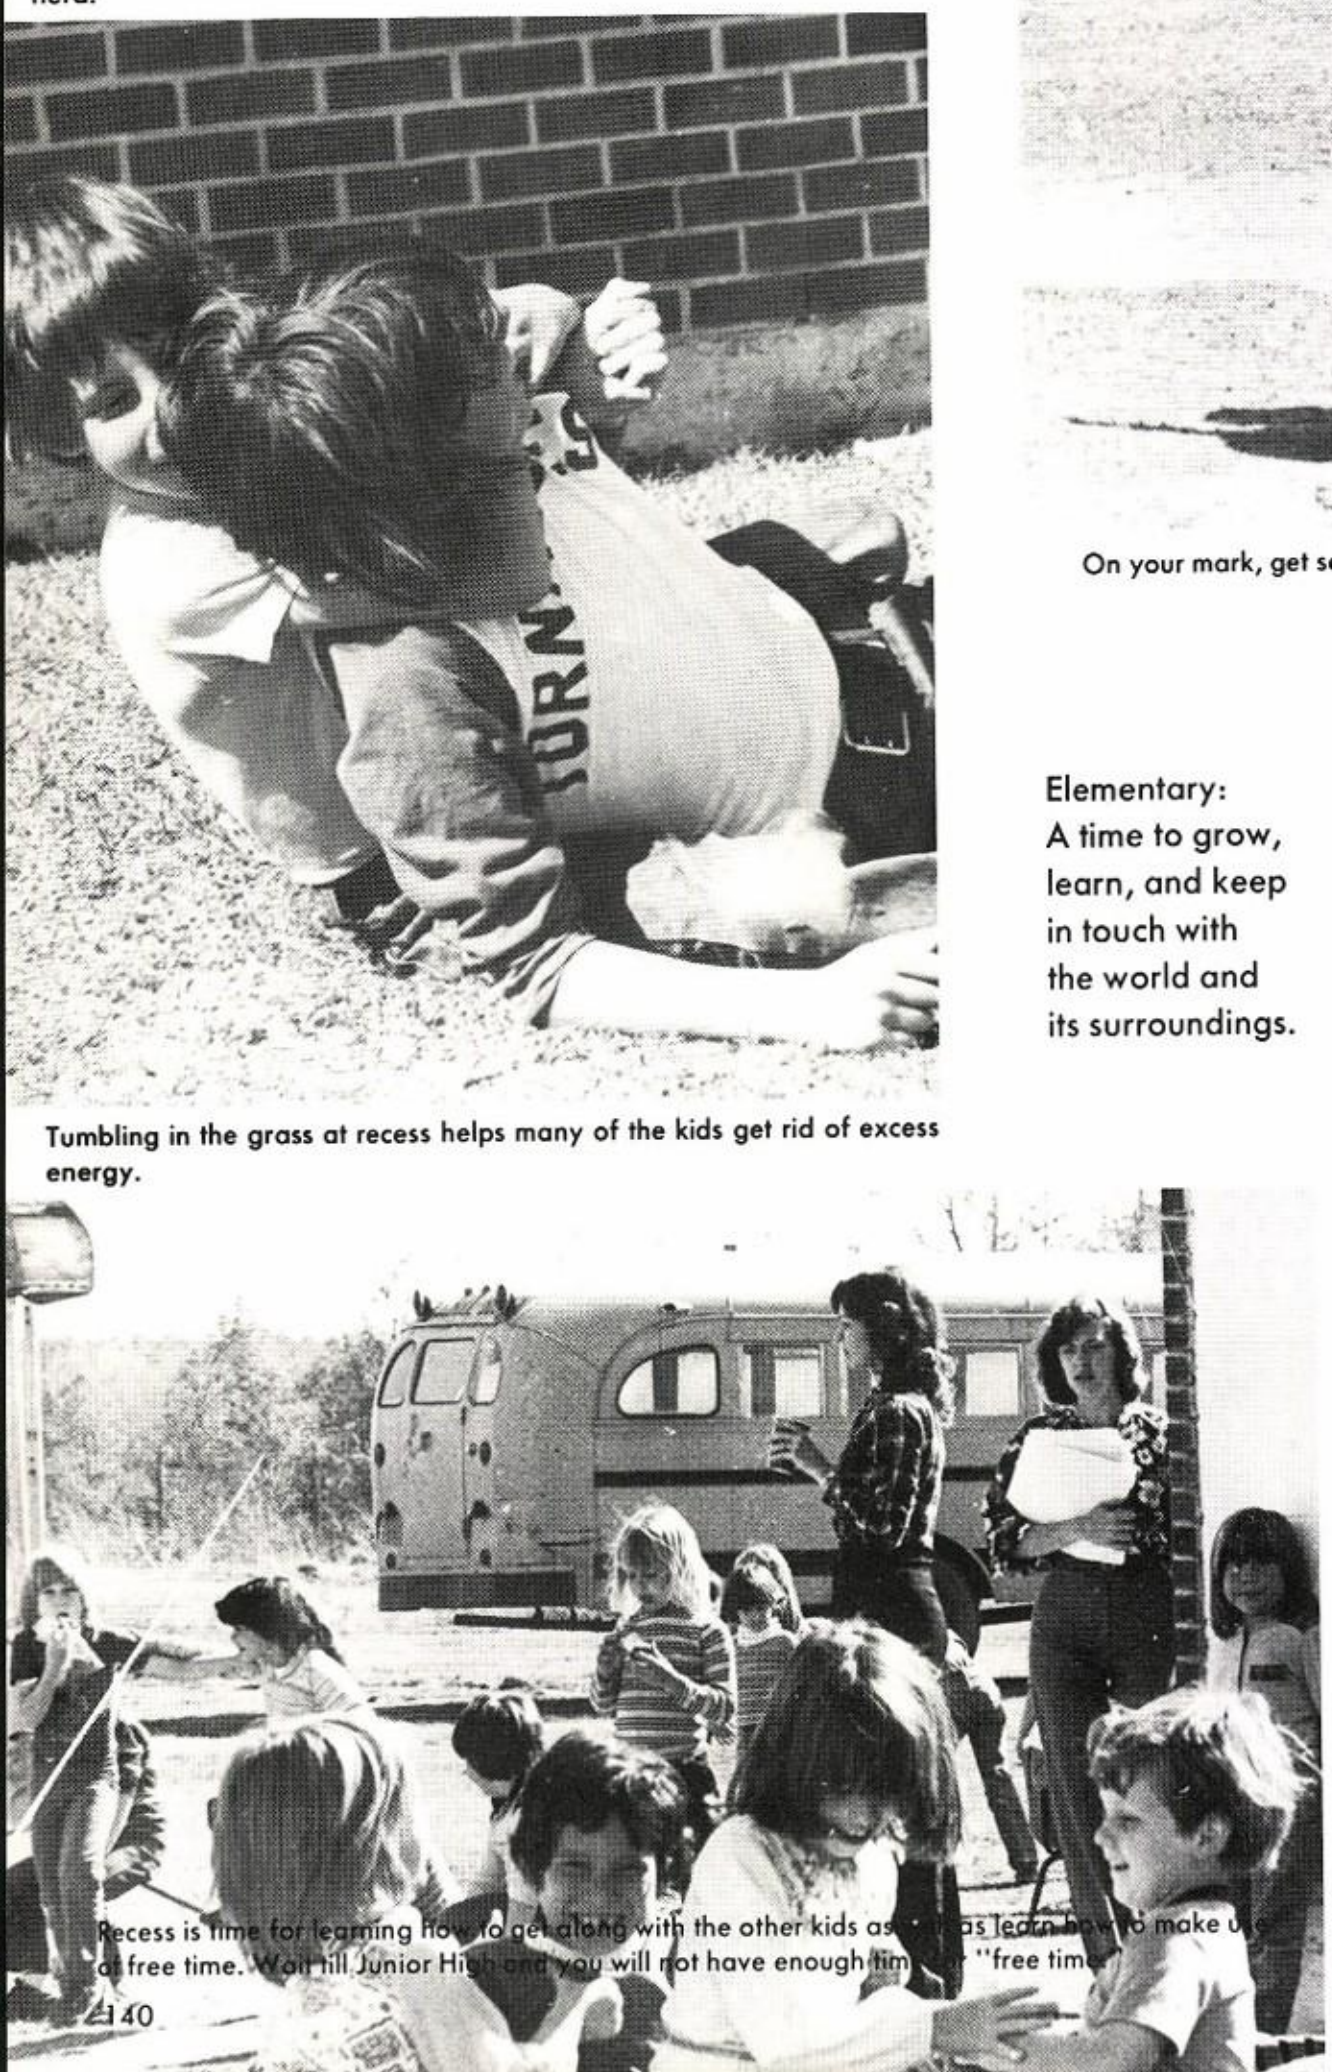
Sometimes school is — learning to conform.

Classes — p. 139



Through rain, sleet, and snow every teacher takes her turn to "ride" herd.

Tumbling in the grass at recess helps many of the kids get rid of excess energy.



Recess is time for learning how to get along with the other kids as well as learn how to make use of free time. Wait till Junior High and you will not have enough time for "free time."

On your mark, get set, go! Relays are an important part of recess activities.

Elementary:
A time to grow,
learn, and keep in touch with the world and its surroundings.

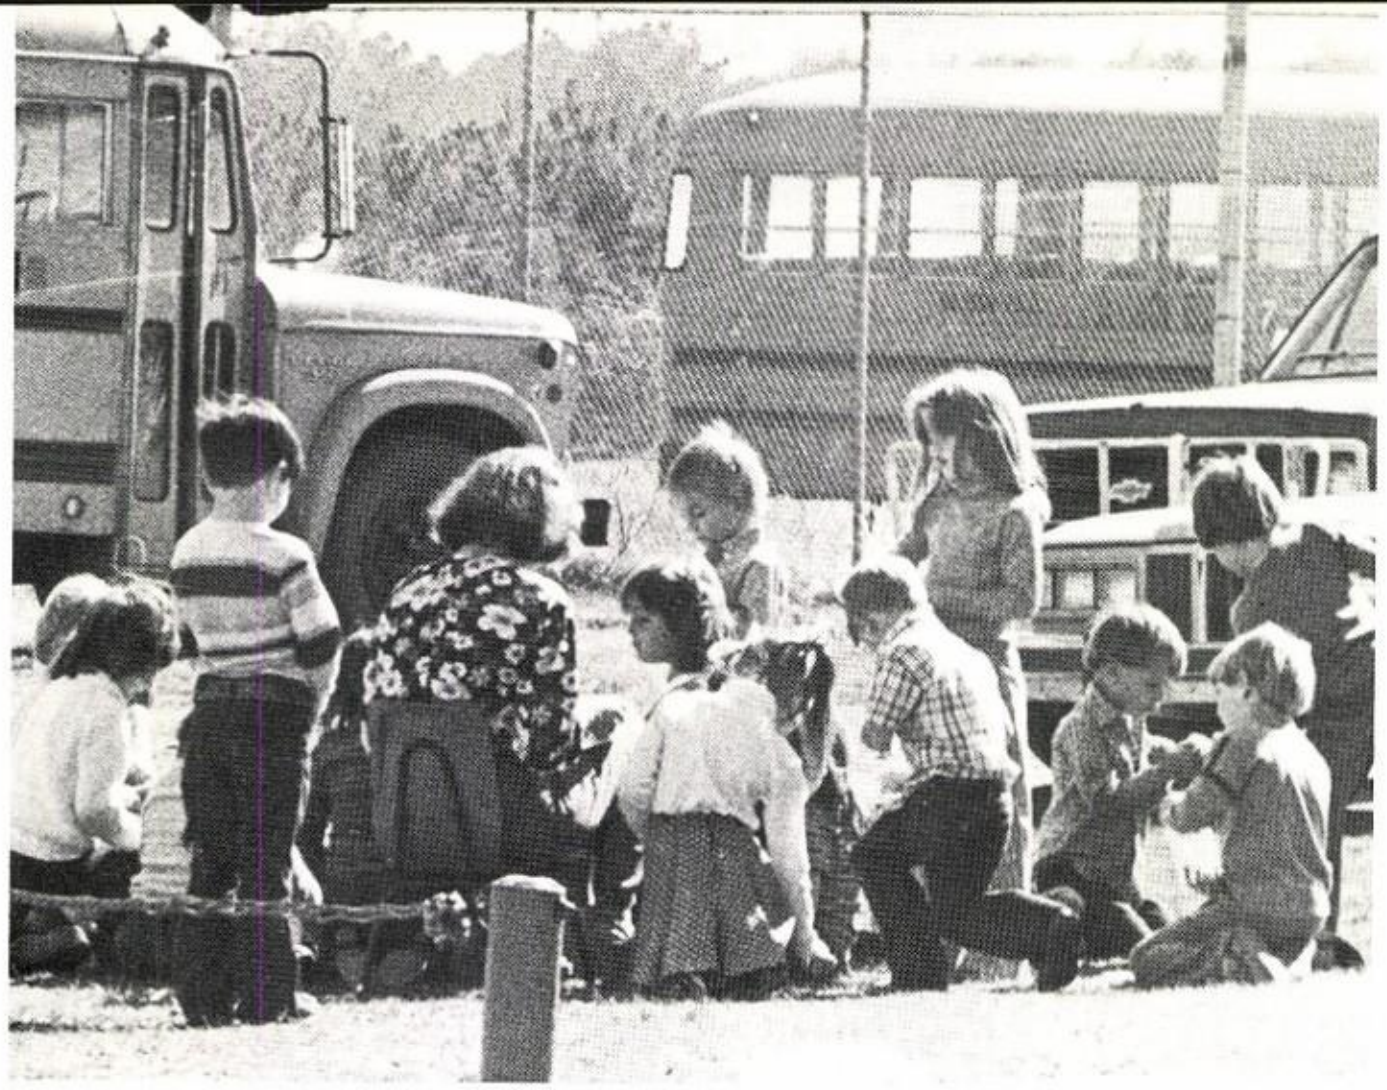
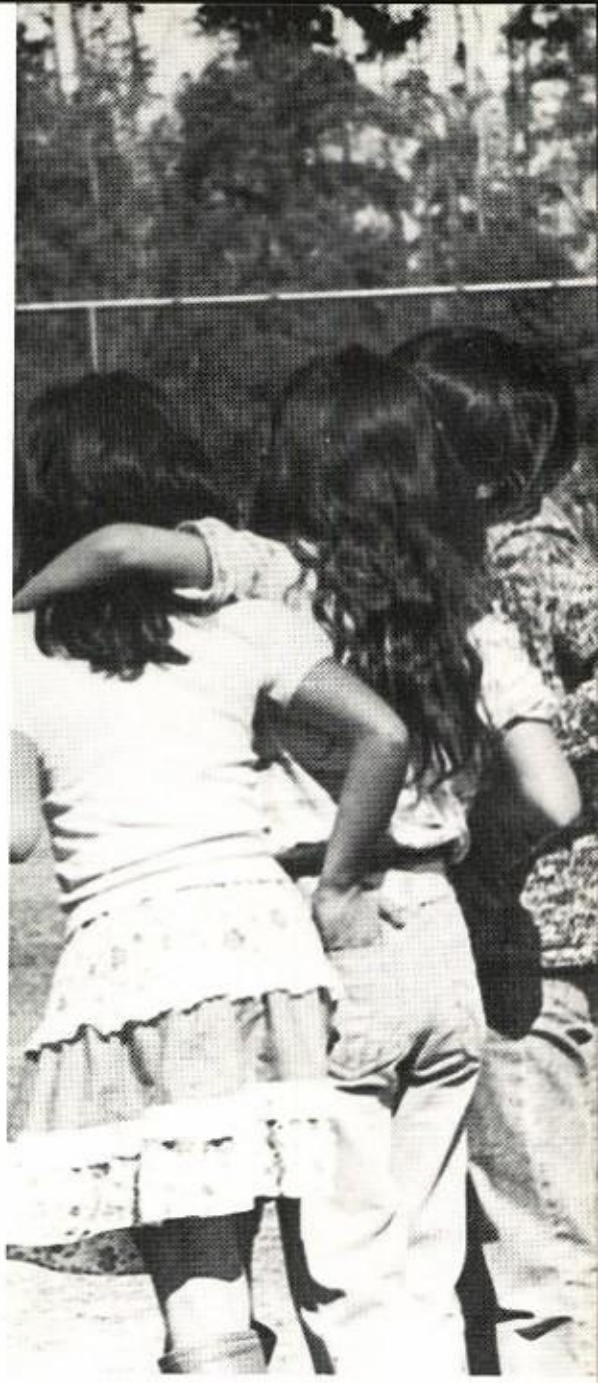
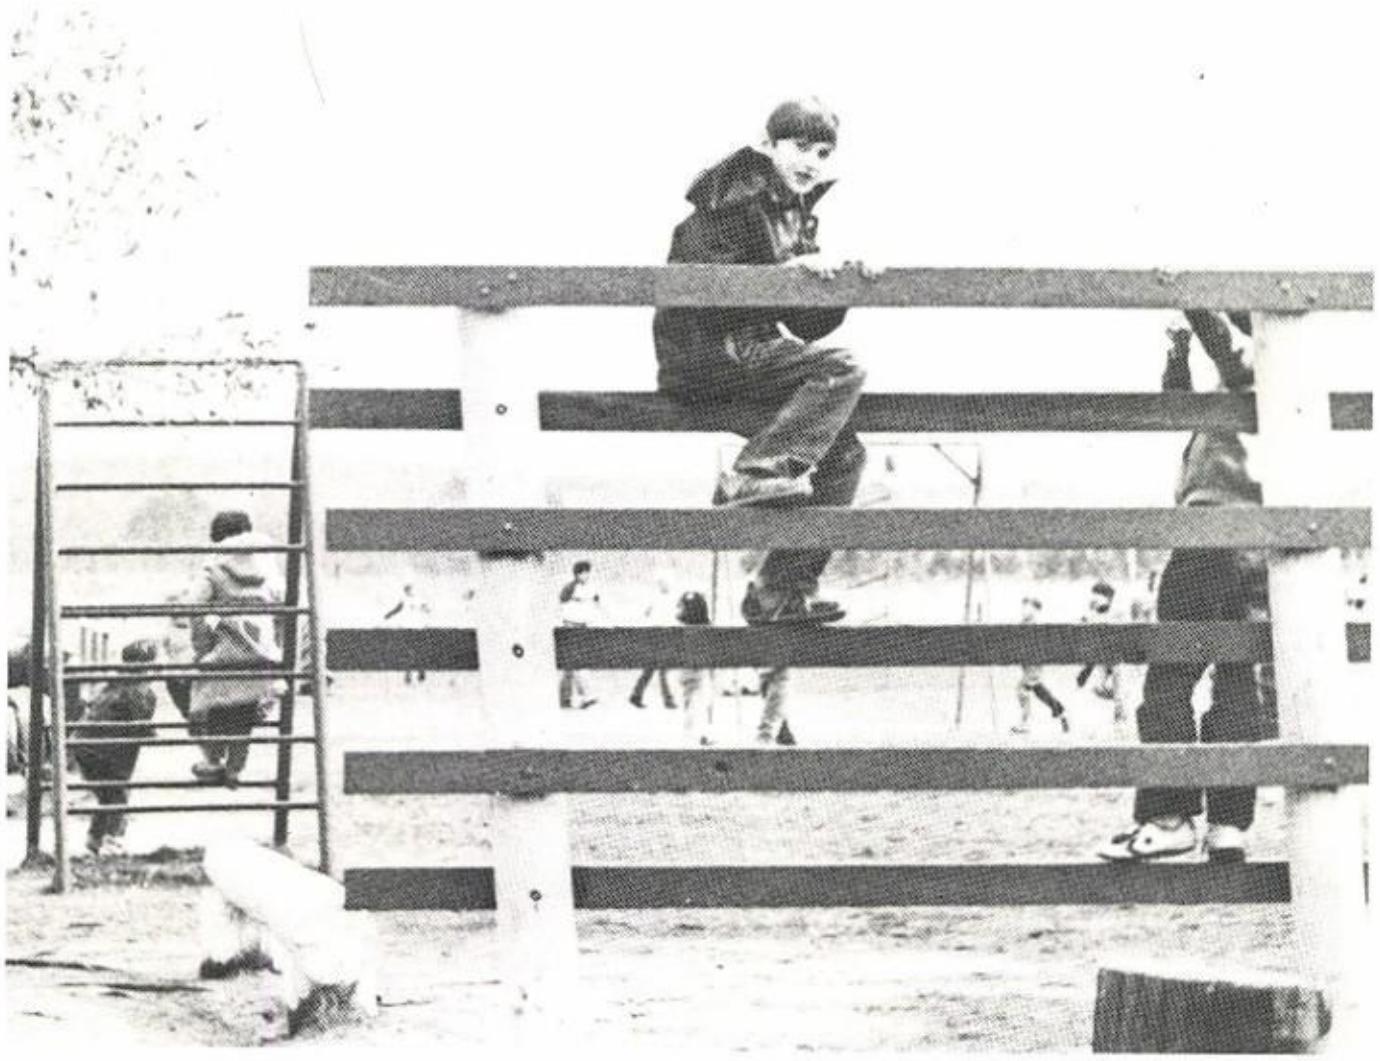
Sometimes you get so "put" out with the "world" you just want to throw something.



A time for peace and quiet is "story time." Many of the teachers find time to read a story.



"Sisterly love" is shown at recess.



The obstacle course still provides entertainment for all ages. The course has undergone 4 years of wear.

Thinking to yourself and finding things to laugh about make elementary a fun and enjoyable experience. Sometimes we all have to grow up and keep on facing things which hit us in the "head" every day we live.

Even though many of the kids can find something to do during recess and on the playground, there are some who still watch everyone else.

Planning menus, decorating the cafeteria, attending conferences, learning the type A lunch — this is what the Youth Advisory Council is all about. The Youth Advisory Council (YAC) has been busier this year than ever before. With a campus wide membership of 110 YAC'S, the club has had a most productive year.

Their projects have included a school wide Christmas party with refreshments and carols, decorating a Christmas tree in the cafeteria, attending many conventions and painting the cafeteria.

The YAC'S have also gotten an a la' carte line and a salad bar put in the snack bar.

The YAC'S are also going to host the Southwestern Regional convention which will be held on a dude ranch in November.

High school officers are Michele Harrison — Chairman elect, Lisa Richardson — Chairman, and Carlton Colmanaires — Secretary.

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America started their year off with freshman orientation along with a hamburger supper.

As the year progressed Mr. Daniel and Mr. Stephenson, along with student teachers, helped students better understand farming skills in the 80's.

From day one of this year students began preparing show exhibits for the 1980 Annual Livestock Show. March 13, finally arrived and this year they had a grand champion steer. Brian Stephenson, sophomore, had a "Other Cross" classed steer which won 1st in his class and won 1st over all steers.

The clubs banquet was held May 19, in the cafeteria and was catered by Wagon Wheel Bar-B-Que. The theme of the banquet was "Traveling Down Country Roads."

Standing: Drum Major — Teresa Duren, Leora Fondren, James Humphries, Kathy Bruce, Stephen Pace.

It has been an exciting year for the Hudson High School Band. During the fall they attended several parades. One of these was the Corrigan-Camden parade in Corrigan. The next was in Chester, where they won first place. Their last parade was the Lufkin Christmas parade.

Highlighting this year was the playing for the Hudson Basketball games. They attended all of the games and enjoyed the enthusiasm of the crowd while playing.

Early this spring they began work on music for contests. They attended contest in Tyler, March 12 and showed Region XXI that Hudson has a good band program.

Front Row: Sonya Adams, Vice President, Becky Spaine, Student Council. Back Row: James Simms, Reporter, Carlton Colmenares, Student Council. Not Shown: Sharon Adams, Sec. and Treas. and Lavina Duncan, President.

The Science Club has spent a busy year with many exciting and informative activities.

Films were shown at several meetings concerning Lunar landings.

Experiments were done on various subjects. Each one helped to increase the members' knowledge of the workings of basic science.

Lectures given about the job opportunities open to the science-minded student helped to prepare college bound members in that field.

The year ended pleasantly with a guided tour of the Ellen Trout Zoo.

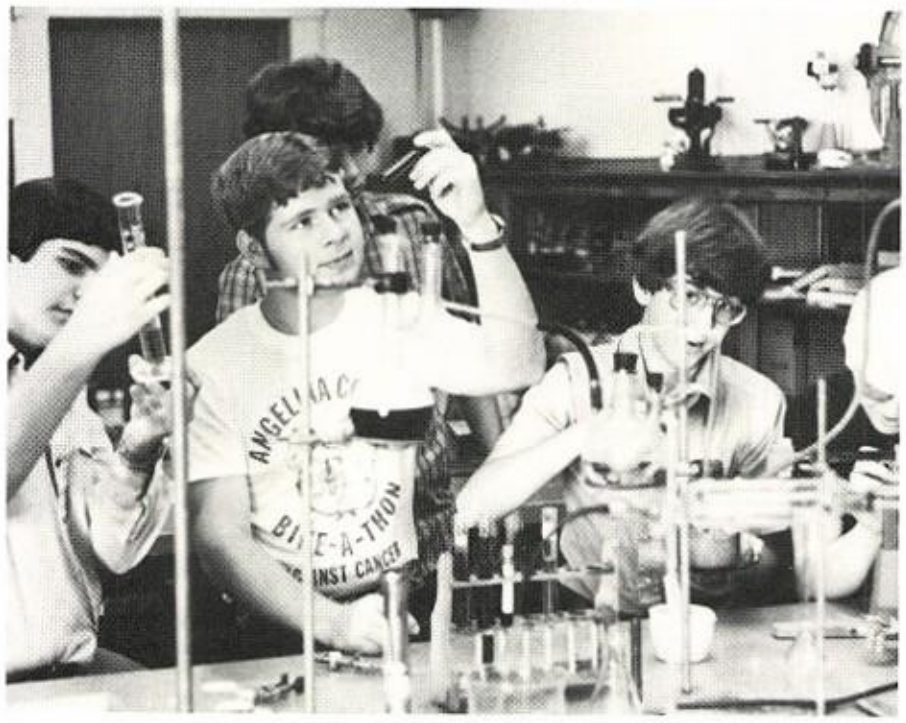
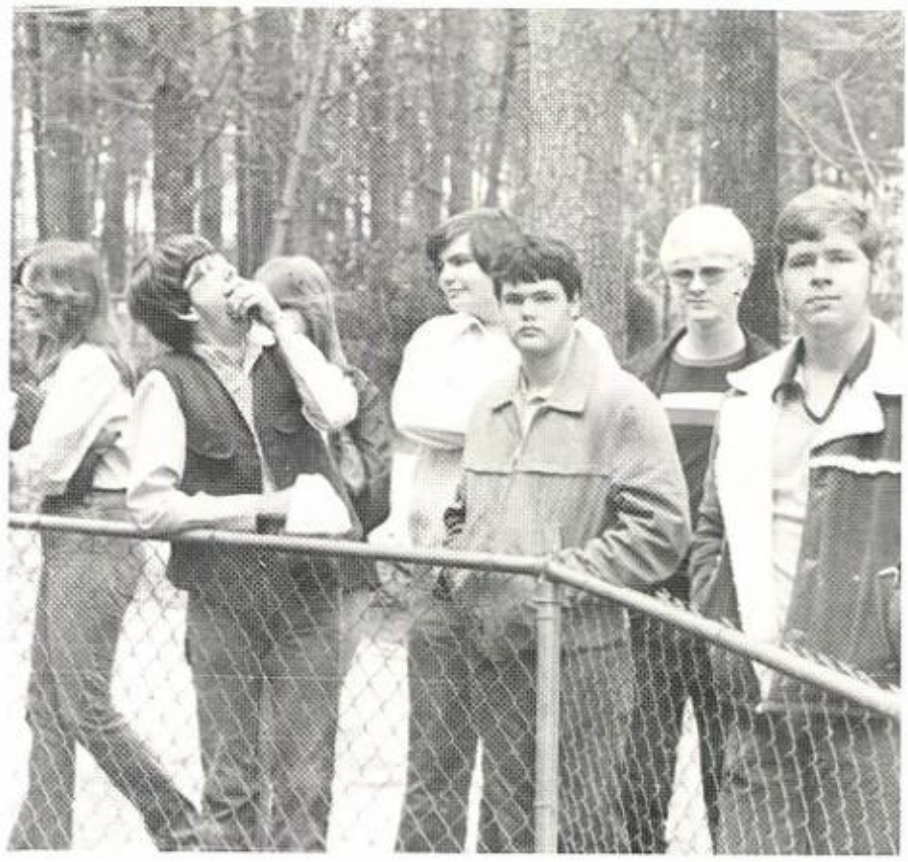
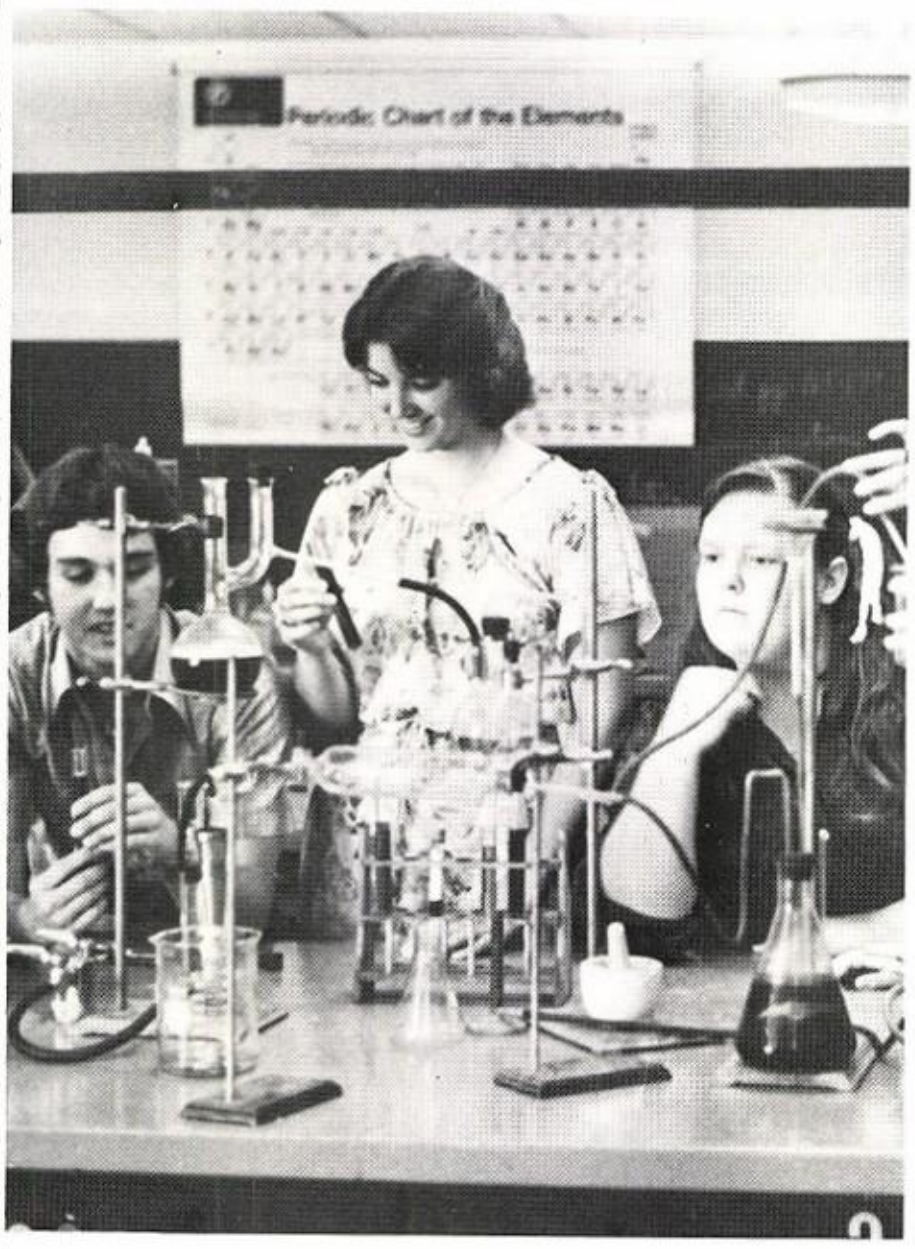
Talk about EVOLUTION!!



"How long until this stuff blows up," says Ricky Traylor.



O.K. Mr. Hiers . . . I'M SORRY. Now get down out of that tree!



Learning about chemicals is the educational part of the Science Club.

The Science Club made it another year without blowing up the lab.

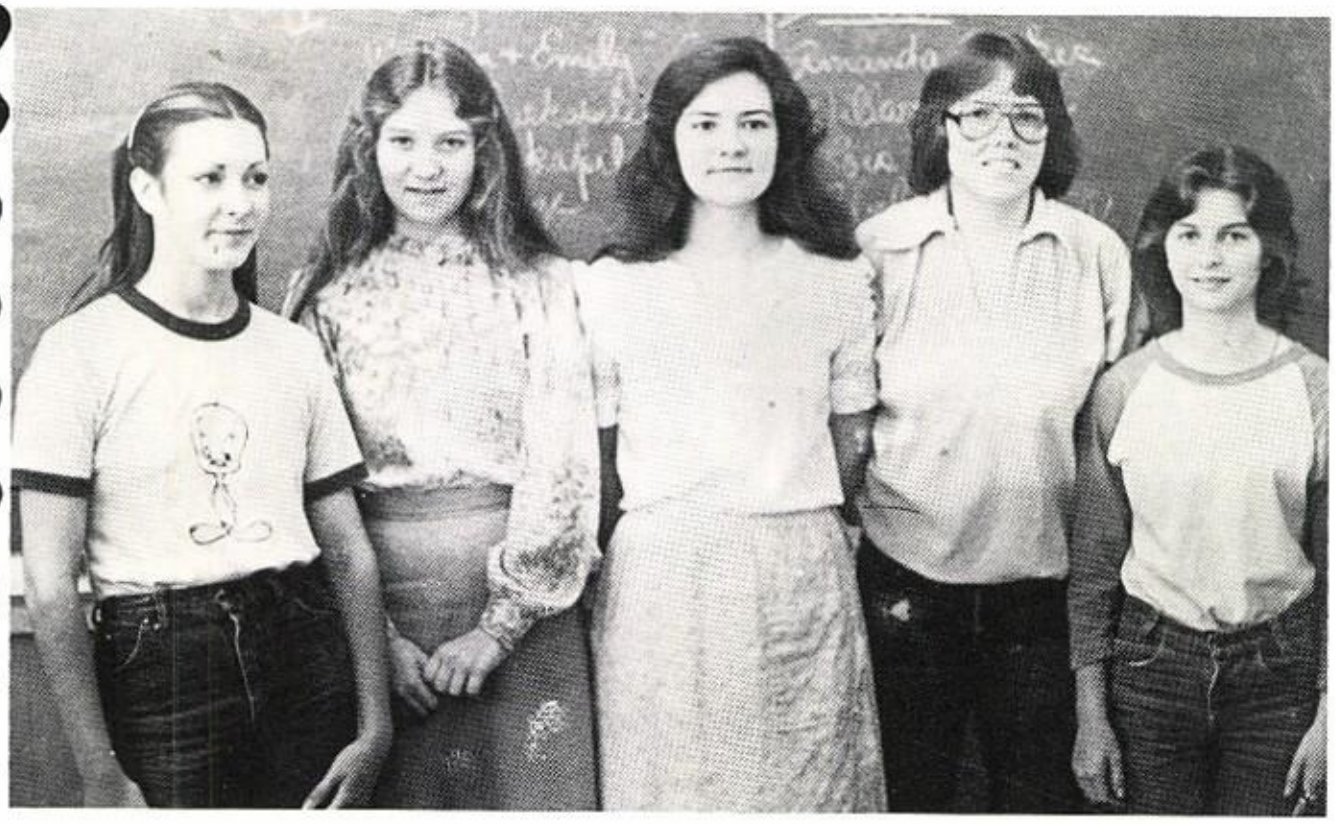
The Jr. High CIA has had a great year. They met once a month and had much participation from officers and members. The organization had several activities to raise money to purchase books for the library. Students who participate, learn more about Christian fellowship and concern for God and fellowman.

Officers are. Sitting: Christie Sims — Vice President, Bronwyn Anderson — Song Leader, Kim Christie — Secretary. Standing: Jill Mason — Librarian, Dona Hartman — President, Todd Smith — Song Leader, Paula Chancelor — Piano Player, Randi Stringer — Reporter, and Kevin Ragland — Reporter.

Christians in Action



Christians in Action is a group that provides activities for Christians who are concerned with including Christ in their school life.

During the Christmas holidays, the group went to nursing homes and told the story of Jesus' birth. After the scripture reading, songs were sung.

During the last part of school each denomination represented in the club had one week in which they could decorate the bulletin board with things about their church. At the weekly meeting they had a question and answer session explaining their beliefs.

Philippians 4:13 "For I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Last Row: Steven Weeks, Jimmy Deal, Jay Cooper, Carl Carver, David Myers.

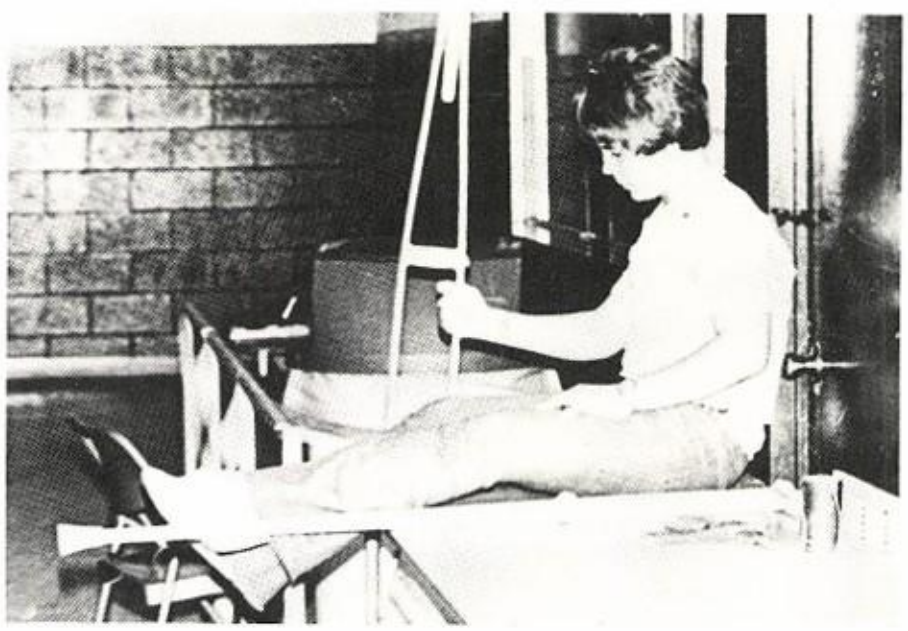
The Hudson Jr. High Student Council has had an outstanding year. The council met twice each month and had a great attendance during each meeting. The council participated in activities in which they raised money to help the students. Students who participate in Student Council learn to have leadership and dependability which will help them throughout life.

Money that was raised during the year was used to purchase new carpet for the Jr. High classrooms and to hold an end of the year dance.

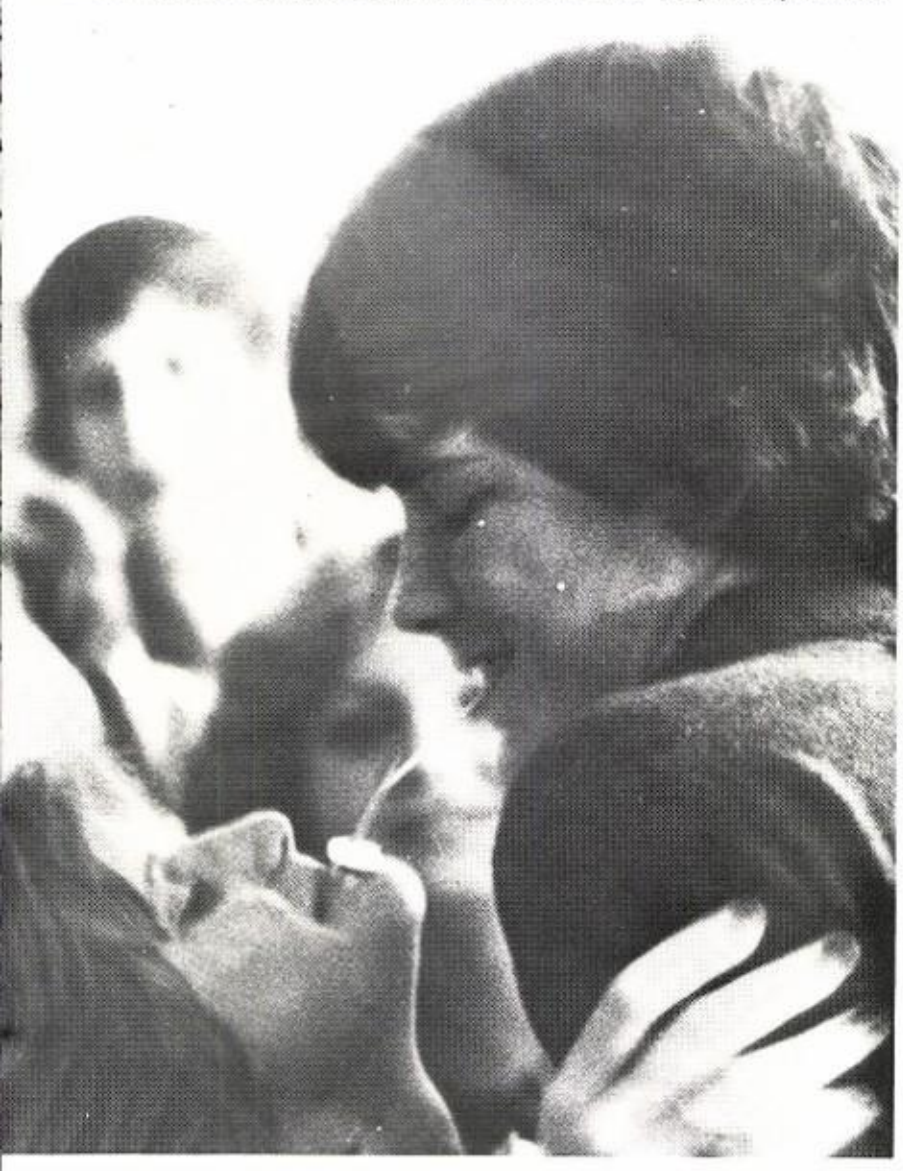
Posed on their newly purchased carpet this year's officers are: Melinda Tolbert — Secretary, Steve Holland — President, Bronwyn Anderson — Vice President. Sponsors are Mrs. Pearl Price and Mrs. Annette Davis.

The Jr. High Student Council members and their dates enjoy the end of school dance.

"This rocking and rolling has given me a headache," says Ricky Levens.



"No one loves me anymore!!"



Hollywood . . . here we come!

Robert, you're a "lifesaver!"

After completing twelve years of school, we realize the importance of accomplishment. Working with the student body, annual staff, faculty, and final deadlines of the completion of the 1980 Hornet has given us that feeling of accomplishment.

School days will fade away, but the memories of the 1979-80 year will be captured in this year's annual. We hope we have preserved the best of Hudson and wish it will mean as much to you as it does to us.

Editors,
Rhonda Hefner
Brenda Stephens

The boys went that-a-way!!

By trying to cover every event, banquet, and other special moments The Hornet Staff has finally completed the 1979-80 yearbook.

The staff attended summer workshop at Sam Houston State University. A 1st place honor went to the staff for their table decoration, 2nd place went to the members for a mini-planned yearbook, and 3rd place on an individual layout.

To kick off the yearbook sales the staff presented a skit of the 50's. They also raised money with a picture sale and by giving students the opportunity to have their reflection pictures made.

The staff hopes that they have captured all the moments that were special to you this year.

Shake your bootie!!

X-marks the spot. Right Scarlett?

It's not nice to tell secrets!

Honest I did not break it.

Melodious notes filled the band hall as the choir worked hard to harmonize. All their hard work paid off as they sang 3 selections at UIL contests and brought home a III rating.

Not only did the choir learn to harmonize, they also learned to be salesmen. They sold candles, greeting cards and placemats. Money raised from these projects was used to buy new risers and for a trip to Six Flags.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club has had a very busy year. A Halloween Dance began the club's activities. They also sponsored a mail truck wash, a do-nut sale, and a Valentine flower sale.

Members who were top ten in the club attended the Pan American Student Forum Convention in San Antonio. Michael Juarez was elected president of the PASF.
